

ANNOUNCING A ONE-DAY COLLABORATIVE LEADERSHIP TRAINING IN DURANGO & GRAND JUNCTION

Have You Struggled With Group Dynamics That Derailed An Important Initiative?
Wondered How You Could Strengthen A Partnership? Collaborative Leadership (Cl)
Training Is For You & Your Partners

The Colorado Dept. of Public Health & Environment's Turning Point Initiative is providing a no-cost training on its new, national curriculum
"The Collaborative Leadership Learning Modules: A Comprehensive Series"

The full-day, interactive sessions explore fundamental concepts of collaborative leadership, six key practices of collaboration, and its efficacy in mobilizing communities.

Durango, June 2, 2004, 9:00AM – 4:00PM, and Grand Junction, August 30, 2004, 9:00AM – 4:00PM.

Note A session on "Training and Implementation Hints" for training professionals will be offered from 4:00PM to 5:00PM both days

Lunch will be provided. Registration information provided below.

Seating is limited to first 25 registrants.

To register and/or receive further information:
contact Judy McCree Carrington at judy.mccree-carrington@state.co.us